GOLDWATER
WOMEN'S TENNIS CLASSIC
A USTA Pro Circuit Event

What: The Third Annual Goldwater Women's Tennis Tournament will bring 60 highly competitive professional women tennis players, ranked 60 in the world and up, to the Valley to earn Women's Tennis Association ranking points and $75,000 in prize money. These rising stars will be competing in their "last chance" U.S. event of the year to earn points to qualify for the Australian Open. The tournament is held under the auspices of the U.S. Tennis Association's Pro Circuit, one of the top player development circuits in the country. The event, the only professional women's tennis event on the calendar in the Valley, is open to the public.

When: November 6-13, 2011

Where: Phoenix Country Club, Phoenix, Arizona

Why: 100% of the proceeds benefit the mission of Ryan House, which is to provide respite and palliative care to children with life-threatening conditions and, as-needed, end-of-life care.

From diagnosis through end-of-life and beyond, Ryan House provides a comprehensive program of family-centered care including medical, emotional, social and spiritual support services and therapies to enhance quality of life.

Ryan House is supported 100% by charitable contributions with no government funding or insurance reimbursement.
